This Court, therefore, accepts these allegations from the Complaint as true.2

As to the allegations in the Complaint regarding damages, Plaintiff seeks its actual damages for Breach of Contract. plus its related attorneys' fees and costs and pre- and post-judgment interest.3 The Court has sufficient information through the Complaint, the Motion and supporting documents to render judgment on the damages without a hearing:

The Agreement and Addendum between the parties also specifically set forth the rights and remedies of Plaintiff as to Defendant for non-payment. (See Exhibits 1 and 2 to Doc. 11-1 (Affidavit of Kevin Alexy).) The Court, therefore, alternatively relies on the facially valid Agreement and Addendum in determining the contractual obligations of the parties.

Based on the allegations in the Complaint and the aforementioned Affidavichthe Court has sufficient information to render judgment as to the actual damages without hearing.

The Agreement states that Defendant will "pay reasonable attorney's fees and all costs of collection". (Exhibit 1 to Doc 11-1, ¶ 14.) The attorneys' fees and costs incurred in this action to date, and recoverable from Defendant, total $9,634.05. This represents $7,006.51 in fees and $2,627.54 in costs. Said fees and cos(saire reasonable in light of the circumstances of this case, as supported by the Affidavit of Thomas Po Gulley (Doc. 11-3). Therefore, the Court has sufficient information to render judgment as to the additional damages based on attorneys' fees and costs without hearing.
