right-of-way to maintain, operate, repair, inspect, protect, remove, and replace same. During temporary periods Grantee may use such portion of the property along and adjacent to said right-of-way as may be reasonably necessary in connection with construction, maintenance, repair, removal, or replacement of said storm drain.

Expressly excepting, reserving and specifically subject to a perpetual easement, right and privilege on the part of Grantor, its successors, lessees, licensees and assigns, at any and all times hereafter, to discharge through the medium of the air upon each and every portion of said lands any and all gases, dust, dirt, fumes and other substances and matter which may be released, given, thrown or blown off, emitted or discharged in the course of or by or through the existence or operation of each or all of the smelting plants, reduction works, mines, mills, refineries, power plants, manufactories, tailing deposits and other works or factories which are now or which may hereafter at any time be established or operated by Grantor or by its successors, grantees, lessees, licensees or assigns, or any of them, within Salt Lake County, State of Utah.

By accepting this easement, Grantee hereby agrees to indemnify and save Grantor, its successors and assigns, harmless against any and all loss and expense, including attorneys' fees and other legal expenses, by reason of liability imposed or claimed to be imposed by law upon Grantor for damage because of bodily injury, including death at any time resulting therefrom, or on account of damage to property, sustained by any person or persons arising out of, or in any manner connected with, or growing out of, or predicated upon the construction, maintenance, operation, existence or use of said right-of-way and such adjacent portions of Grantor's property as Grantee shall utilize from time to time, whether or not such bodily injuries, death, or damage to property arise or are claimed to have arisen in whole or in part out of the negligence or other grounds of legal liability, including violation of any duty imposed by statute, ordinance or regulation, on the part of Grantee, Grantor, employees or agents of either of them, or any other person or organization, but excluding any liability caused by the sole negligence or willful misconduct of Grantor.

Grantor expressly reserves the right to construct, operate and maintain ditches, culverts, pipelines or other drainage works, roadways, and any other facilities required by Grantor upon, along, under or across said granted premises, provided only that such shall be constructed, operated and maintained by Grantor so as not to interfere with the use thereof by Grantee.

Grantee agrees to repair or replace at its sole cost and expense any property or facilities of Grantor damaged or injured by the acts or omissions of Grantee, its employees, servants or agents in the maintenance, operation, existence or use of said right-of-way and such adjacent portions of Grantor's property as Grantee shall utilize from time to time.

Disuse of the easement herein granted for the purposes herein described, for a period of one year shall constitute an abandonment by Grantee of the right-of-way herein granted. In case of such an abandonment or the breach by Grantee of any of the conditions, agreements and covenants herein contained, Grantor shall have the right to terminate this Right-of-Way and Easement Grant at any time by giving thirty (30) days notice in writing to Grantee of its intention to terminate the same and at the expiration of said thirty (30) days notice the Right-of-Way and Easement herein granted shall terminate and be at an end and Grantee shall be without recourse or redress of any character against Grantor by reason thereof.

It is hereby understood that any parties securing this grant on behalf of Grantee are without authority to make any representations, covenants or agreements not herein expressed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Grantor and Grantee have caused this instrument to be executed this 19th day of Dec., 1982.
