E 1211424 B 1938 P 230

ARTICLE VI DESCRIPTION OF CONDOMINIUM UNITS

6.1. Description of Condominium Units. Any option, contract, deed, lease, mortgage, deed of trust, will, or similar instrument, may legally describe a Condominium Unit by its identifying unit number and building letter or symbol, followed by the name of this Condominium "Project" with further reference to the recorded Map thereof and the recorded Condominium Declaration. Every such description shall be deemed good and sufficient for all purpose to convey, transfer, encumber or otherwise affect not only the Unit but also the General Common Elements and the description shall be construed to include a non-exclusion of all third parties not lawfully entitled to the use of the same.

6.2. Single Indivisible Units. Each Unit, the appurtenant undivided interest in the General Common Elements, and the appurtenant Limited Common Elements shall together comprise one Condominium Unit, shall be inseparable, and may be conveyed, leased, devised or encumbered only as a Condominium Unit.

ARTICLE VII DUTIES OF ASSOCIATION

7.1. Determination of Common Expenses. The Association shall have the duty of determining by estimate or otherwise the amount of Common Expenses necessary to properly maintain, repair and administer the Condominium "Property". At the time of the first conveyance of each Condominium Unit and from time to time thereafter, it shall notify the Owner or Owners of each Condominium Unit the amount of the estimated annual assessment and shall collect the fractional interest of one-twelfth (1/12) of the amount thereof from each Owner or Owners of a Condominium Unit each month, or a pro-rata proportion for a period beginning after the first day of a month.

7.2. Common Expenses. Common Expenses shall include but not be limited to expenses set forth in Section 2.11. Costs for utilities, including but not limited to sewer, water, electrical service, natural gas, air conditioning and other utilities, which are not separately assessed, metered or otherwise separately allocated to a Unit or to limited common elements, shall be Common Expenses.

7.3. Utilities Serving Common Elements. Costs for sewer and water mains, electrical lines and other matters serving Common Elements, as contrasted with Limited Common Elements, shall be charged to each Owner on the basis of Fractional Interest. The amounts may be determined by estimate, and changed from time to time as actual bills or experience require. Each Condominium Unit Owner shall pay for all utilities applicable to its individual Condominium Unit, directly and not through the Association, when the utilities are separately metered and thus allow for separate billing in accordance with actual usage. E 1211424 B 1938 P 231

7.4. Additional Common Expenses. In the event a Unit owner uses additional common utilities that are paid for as part of the Common Expenses or incurs additional common services or expenses that are paid for as part of the Common Expenses, above and beyond those utilities and services normally incurred by other Unit Owners, these additional services or expenses shall be paid for by the Unit Owner when the utilities are separately metered or when the services can be specifically identified and thus allow for separate billing in accordance with actual usage. Additional Common Expenses shall include but not be limited to utility services for extraordinary hours; utility service for unique computer facilities requiring special air conditioning; insurance for unique or additional hazards; or additional cleaning or maintenance required by a Unit Owner in the common area adjacent to its Unit. Expenses incurred in connection with limited common area shall be charged to the Owner of the Unit that has use of the limited common area.

7.5. Reserves. The Association shall maintain and establish a reserve of such funds for maintenance, repair, replacement, administration, management services (if necessary), insurance premiums and other matters deemed by the Association appropriate for reserves. Reserves may be established and maintained for appropriate periods including multiple year reserves for repair or replacement of parking lots, common area furniture, fixtures and equipment and heating, ventilation and air conditioning equipment.

ARTICLE VIII LIEN FOR NONPAYMENT OF COMMON EXPENSES

8.1. Obligation for Payment. It shall be the duty of the Owner of each Condominium Unit to pay the Owner's proportionate share of the Common Expenses allocated or assessed monthly or at such times as may be determined by the Association.

8.2. Lien of Association. If any Condominium Unit Owner shall fail or refuse to make any such payment of the Common Expenses when due, the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on the condominium interest of such owner as set forth in the deed of conveyance to him, together with his interest in Common Elements, and upon the recording of notice thereof by the Association in the office of the Davis County Recorder, such lien on the Unit shall be prior to all other liens and encumbrances, recorded or unrecorded, except only (a) taxes and special assessment liens on the unit in favor of any assessing unit, and special district; and (b) encumbrances on the interest of the Unit Owner recorded prior to the date such notice is recorded, which by law would be a lien prior to subsequently recorded encumbrances.

8.3. Lien for Association and Owners. The lien provided for in this section shall be in favor of the Association and shall be for the benefit of all other Condominium Unit Owners, and may be foreclosed by an action brought in the name of the Association in a like manner as a mortgage of real property. 1211424 B 1938 P 232

8.4. Enforcement of Lien. The Association may enforce the lien for nonpayment of Common Expenses by judicial foreclosure of the Unit Owner's interest. The sale or foreclosure shall be conducted at the election of the Association, in the same manner as foreclosures of mortgages or in any other manner permitted by law.

8.5. Action for Expenses. The Association may bring a civil action to recover a money judgement for unpaid Common Expenses. Any such action is maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the obligation.

8.6. Attorneys Fees. In any action brought to enforce payment of Common Expenses or to enforce any lien for unpaid Common Expenses, the prevailing party in the action is entitled to recover its cost of court and reasonable attorneys fees.

8.7. Rental and Expenses in Case of Foreclosure. In the event of a foreclosure of the lien securing payment of Common Expenses, the Owner shall pay a reasonable rental for the Unit. The Owner shall also be required to pay the Association all monthly assessments for the Condominium Unit during the period of foreclosure, and the Association shall be entitled to a receiver to collect the same. The Association acting on behalf of the Unit Owners, shall have the power to bid in the interest so foreclosed at foreclosure sale and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same. The Association may subrogate its rights to such lien as may be necessary or expedient to an insurance company which will continue to give total coverage in spite of nonpayment of such defaulting owner's portion of the premium.

8.8. Joint Liability of Transferor and Transferee. The Grantee of a Condominium Unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the Grantor for all unpaid assessments against the Grantor for Grantor's proportionate share of the Common Expenses up to the time of the grant or conveyance. Grantee may recover from Grantor the amounts paid by the Grantee pursuant to the amounts set forth in a Certificate from the Association, or is avoided by the non-issuance of such Certificate within the ten day period set forth.

8.9. Certificate of Assessments. Upon payment of a reasonable fee not to exceed Ten Dollars ($10.00) and upon the written request of any owner, mortgagee, prospective grantee or prospective mortgagee, of a Condominium Unit, the Association shall issue a written Certificate setting forth: the amount of unpaid common expenses, if any, with respect to the subject Unit; when such assessment becomes due; and credit for advanced payments or for prepaid items (including, but not limited to, insurance premiums). Such Certificate shall be conclusive upon the Association in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith. Unless such request for a Certificate of Assessments be complied with within ten (10) days of the receipt of the request, then (a) in the case of a request by a mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, all unpaid common expenses which become due prior to the date of making such request shall be subordinate to the lien of said mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or (b) in the case of a request by a prospective grantee, he shall not be liable for, nor shall the Unit conveyed be liable for, any unpaid assessment or Common Expenses. The provisions contained in this paragraph shall not apply upon the initial transfer of the Condominium Units by Declarant.

ARTICLE IX
LIMITED COMMON EXPENSES

9.1. Limited Common Expenses. Limited Common Expenses shall be assessed by the Association to the owners using or having access to the Limited Common Areas associated with the Owner's Unit. These expenses shall be paid to the Association in the same manner as other Common Expenses. Limited Common Expenses shall be subject to the Association's lien and the rights and remedies provided in Article VIII and applicable law.

9.2. Limited Common Area Furnishings. Owners using or having access to Limited Common Areas may, by mutual agreement, acquire and maintain furnishings, fixtures and equipment. These purchases shall be made by mutual consent. The Association shall not be responsible for such furniture, fixtures and equipment or other costs associated with the Limited Common Area.

ARTICLE X

10.1. Building Identification. One or more outdoor signs will be maintained as General Common Elements. These signs shall identify unit owners or tenants. The Association shall determine the location, size, type and appearance of signs.

ARTICLE XI
MORTGAGES AND EFFECT OF FORECLOSURE

11.1. Mortgages. Any Owner shall have the right from time to time to mortgage or encumber his interest in a Unit by deed of trust, mortgage or other security instrument. A first mortgage shall be one which has first and paramount priority under applicable law. The Owner of a Condominium Unit may create junior mortgages on the following conditions: (1) that any such junior mortgages shall always be subordinate to all of the terms, conditions, covenants, restrictions, uses, limitations, obligations, lien for common expenses, and other obligations created by this Declaration and by the By-Laws; and (2) that the mortgagee under any junior mortgage shall release, for the purpose of restoration of any improvement upon the mortgaged premises, all of his right, title and interest in and to the proceeds under all insurance policies upon said premises, which insurance policies were effected and placed upon the mortgaged premises by the Association. Such release shall be furnished forthwith by a junior mortgagee upon written request of the Association.

11.2. Foreclosure. In the event any person shall acquire or be entitled to the issuance of a tax deed, trustee's deed, sheriff's deed or other deed of conveyance, the interest so acquired shall be subject to all the provisions of this Declaration and to the terms, provisions, covenants, conditions and limitations contained in the Declaration, the Condominium Map, the By-Laws of the Association or any restrictions or exceptions affecting such interest then in force.

ARTICLE XII INSURANCE

12.1. Insurance. The Association shall have the authority to and shall obtain insurance for the Condominium Project on all buildings common areas, etc., for liability and against loss or damage by fire and such other hazards as are generally covered in the area under standard extended coverage provisions for at least the full insurable replacement costs of the condominium buildings, Common Elements and Units, and may include coverage against vandalism and other risks. The insurance shall be carried with a domestic insurance company determined to be acceptable by the Association. The insurance shall name the Association as the insured and shall protect the interests of each Condominium Owner and mortgagees.

In the event the insurance proceeds are insufficient to reconstruct the building, damage to or destruction of the building shall be repaired and restored by the Association using proceeds of insurance, if any, on the building for that purpose. The Unit Owners shall be liable for assessment for any deficiency. If three-fourths or more of the building is destroyed or substantially damaged and if the Unit Owners, by a vote of at least three-fourths of the Unit Owners, do not voluntarily within one hundred days after such destruction or damage, make provision for reconstruction, the Association shall comply with the requirements

As attorney-in-fact, the Association, by its president and secretary, shall have full and complete authorization, right and power to make, execute and deliver to itself or a third person any contract, deed or any other instrument with respect to the interest of a Condominium Unit Owner which are necessary and appropriate to exercise the powers herein granted.

14.3. Authority to Subordinate Interest. Such power of attorney includes a power to subject a Unit Owner's Condominium interest and/or percentage ownership to whatever rights are necessary (including entry of a Unit in an emergency) to permit proper maintenance, repair and improvement to each and all condominium buildings and Common Areas by the Association.

ARTICLE XV

In the event a structure is partially or totally destroyed, and then rebuilt, the Owners of the Condominium Units therein agree that minor encroachment of parts of the General Common Elements due to construction shall be permitted and that valid easement for said such encroachments or easements shall be considered or determined to be encumbrances either on the General Common Elements of on the units.

The Owner shall then repay the Association in the amount actually expended for said repairs, together with all other expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred by the Association in Connection therewith. Each Condominium Unit Owner further agrees that these charges for repairs, if not paid within ten (10) days after the completion of the work, shall become a lien upon said Owner's Condominium interest as set forth above, and shall continue to be such lien until fully paid.
