2. Property Owner agrees to grant the cross drainage agreement and to execute all necessary documents to create said cross drainage agreement.
3. The easement to be created shall burden and benefit the parcels. The easement shall run with the land and shall be binding on and shall insure to the benefit of the property owners, their respective heirs, successors or assigns.
4. The easement to be created shall continue until expressly terminated by written agreement between the parties, their successors, or their assigns. Any agreement to terminate or modify the easement to be created shall be approved in writing by Salt Lake City.
5. Property Owner and Adjacent Property Owner agree to make the necessary improvements to their respective properties, jointly or separately, to allow the cross drainage as set forth herein within a reasonable time after the creation of the cross drainage easements.
6. Property Owner agrees to maintain the easement area that will be located in its property in a reasonable manner and at their sole expense. Said maintenance shall also require snow removal which shall not block the easement.
7. Any violation or breach of this Agreement shall be considered a breach of the site plan, and Salt Lake City shall have the authority to enforce this Agreement in any manner permitted by law.
8. This Agreement to create a cross drainage agreement shall be recorded with the Salt Lake County Register of Deeds.
