

Together with all rights of ingress and egress necessary or convenient for the full and complete use, occupation and enjoyment of the easement hereby granted, and all rights and privileges incident thereto, including the right, from time to time, to cut or trim any trees, vines, or branches on said premises which interfere with any such wires, cables, or attachments, upon condition that all such cutting or trimming shall be done in a proper manner and so as to cause no premanent injury to any such trees, vines or branches.

The rights hereby granted are subject to the condition that should the said poles or attachments of the Grantee interfere with the erection of any buildings or permanent improvements which the owner of said premises may hereafter desire to erect or make thereon, the Grantee will, at its own expense, readjust its wires to avoid such interference or will relocate its poles and attachments in the running line above described, to some other possible point on the premises, to be designated by the Grantor.

WITNESS the hand of the Grantor, this 19th day of April, A. D. 1939.
