III.1. Annual Meetings. The first annual meeting of the members shall be held within one year from the date of incorporation of the Association, and all subsequent regular annual meetings of the membership will be held on the same day of the same month each year thereafter. XV.1. These Bylaws may be amended at a regular or special meeting of the members, by a vote of a majority of a quorum of members present in person and/or proxy, except that the Federal Housing Administration or the Veterans Administration shall have the right to veto amendments while there is Class B membership.
