EXHIBIT B BYLAWS OF THE TOSCANA AT HIGHLAND
HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

THESE BYLAWS, for Toscana at Highland Homeowners Association, a Utah non-profit corporation, are hereby adopted as the official Bylaws of said Association.

ARTICLE I. DEFINITIONS

The following terms used in these Bylaws shall be defined as follows:

1.1 Articles. The Articles of Incorporation of Toscana at Highland Homeowners Association, a Utah non-profit corporation, including any amendments thereto duly adopted.

1.2 Bylaws. These Bylaws of the Association including any amendments thereto duly adopted.

1.3 Corporation. As used herein, the term "Corporation" shall refer to The Toscana at Highland Homeowners Association, a non-profit entity organized under the laws of the State of Utah.

1.4 Lot. A portion of the Toscana at Highland Development which is subject to the Declaration hereafter defined and as set forth on the plat as a "lot," and subject to Assessment by the Association, and the Owner of which is a Member of the Association.

ARTICLE II. MEETING OF MEMBERS

2.1. Place of Meeting. The Board of Directors may designate any place within the State of Utah as the place of meeting for any annual meeting or for any special meeting called by the Board of Directors. A Waiver of Notice signed by all Members entitled to vote at any such meeting may designate any place within the State of Utah as the place for the holding of such meeting. If no such designation is made, or if a special meeting be otherwise called, the place of meeting shall be the principal office of the Corporation in the State of Utah.

2.2 Annual Meeting. After turnover of administrative control to the members, the annual meeting of the membership (for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the members) shall be held each year. All Members shall be given notice of all meetings as provided for below.

2.3 Waiver. Notice of all meetings of Members shall be given to all Members entitled to vote at such meetings in the manner provided herein, but such notice may be waived either before or after the holding of a meeting.

2.4 Notice of Annual Meeting. At least ten (10) days prior to the date of an annual meeting, written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting shall either personally, email, text or by mail, by or at the direction of the President or the Secretary or the officer or other persons calling the meeting, to each Member who, thirty (30) days prior to the date of said annual meeting appears of record in the books of the Association. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the Member at his/her address as it appears on the membership books of the Association or to such other last known address of which the Association may have notice, with postage thereon.

2.5 Deferred Annual Meeting. If for any reason the annual meeting of the Members be not held as herein provided, such annual meeting shall be called by the President, or by the Board, as soon as it is convenient. In the event the Board fails to call the annual meeting, any Member may make a demand in writing by registered mail addressed to an officer of the Association that such meeting be held within a reasonable time. If the annual meeting is not called within sixty (60) days following such written demand, any Member may compel the holding of such annual meeting by legal action directed against the Board as provided by law.

2.6 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Membership, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, may be called by the President, by the Board of Directors or by the Members holding not less than twenty percent (20%) of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting.

2.7 Notice of Meeting. At least ten (10) days prior to the date of a special meeting, written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting shall either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the President or the Secretary or the officer or other persons calling the meeting, to each Member who, thirty (30) days prior to the date of said annual meeting appears of record in the books of the Association. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the Member at his/her address as it appears on the membership books of the Association or to such other last known address of which the Association may have notice, with postage thereon.

2.8 Quorum. The Members of the Association entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at any annual or special meeting of Membership. The vote of the simple majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the Members present, or represented by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Members, unless the vote of a greater number is otherwise required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, the Amended and Restated Declaration or by law.

2.9 Members Entitled to Vote. The Members entitled to receive notice of and to vote at any meeting of the Members shall be determined from the Association's records at the time notice is mailed but not earlier than ten (10) days prior to the last day notice may properly be mailed.

2.10 Temporary Adjournment. An annual or special meeting of the Members may adjourn from time to time without new notice being given until the business is completed. The fact of and reason for such adjournment shall be recorded in the minutes of proceedings of the meeting.

2.11 Officers of a Meeting of Members. The presiding officer at a meeting of the Members shall be the President of the Association, or in his/her absence the Vice-President, or in the absence of both the President and the Vice-president the managing agent may conduct the meeting.

2.12 Voting Rights. Each Member of the Association shall be entitled to one (1) vote in person or by proxy for each Lot owned by said Member. Except in cases in which it is otherwise provided by statute, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration, or these Bylaws, a simple majority of the total votes cast by the Members shall be required for the election and for the passage of any measure.

2.13 Voting by Certain Members.

(a) A membership standing in the name of another corporation may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the Bylaws of such corporation may prescribe or, in the absence of such provision, as the Board of Directors of such other corporation may determine.

(b) A membership held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by such person, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of the membership into the name of said person.

(c) A membership standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by said trustee, either in person or by proxy.

(d) A membership in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and a membership held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into the receiver's name if authority to do so be contained in the appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

(e) A Member whose membership is pledged shall be entitled to vote such membership until the membership has been transferred into the name of the pledgee and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the membership so transferred.

2.14 Proxies.

(a) A vote may be cast in person or by proxy. A proxy given by an Owner to any person who represents the Owner at meetings of the Association shall be in writing, dated and signed by such Owner and shall be filed with the secretary or designee in accordance with procedures adopted by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(b) No proxy shall be valid after the meeting for which it was solicited, unless otherwise expressly stated in the proxy; however, no proxy may be valid for more than eleven (11) months after the date of execution.

(c) No proxy shall be valid if it purports to be revocable without notice.

(d) An Owner may not revoke a proxy given except by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the Association or to the Board of Directors if a vote is being conducted by written ballot in lieu of a meeting pursuant to Section 2.16 below.

(e) Every proxy shall automatically cease upon sale of the Lot.

2.15 Action Without a Meeting. Any action which, under any provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws may be taken at a meeting of the members, may be taken without a meeting as provided for in Title 16 Chapter 6a Section 707 of the Utah Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act.

2.16 Action By Written Ballot In Lieu of a Meeting.

(a) Action By Written Ballot. At the discretion of the Board of Directors, any action, except election or removal of directors, that may be taken at any annual, regular or special meeting of the Association may be taken without a meeting as provided for in Title 16 Chapter 6a Section 709 of the Utah Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act.

(b) Form and Effect of Ballot

(i) The written ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action.

(ii) A written ballot may not be revoked.

(c) Information Required in Ballot Solicitations. All solicitations for votes by written ballot must:

(i) State the number of responses needed to meet any applicable quorum requirements and the total percentage of votes needed for approval.

(ii) Specify the period during which the Association will accept written ballots for counting, which period shall end on the earliest of the following:

(1) The date on which the Association has received a sufficient number of approving ballots to pass the proposal;

(2) The date on which the Association has received a sufficient number of disapproving ballots to render the proposal impossible of passage; or

(3) A date certain on which all ballots must be returned to be counted.

(d) Determination of Vote. The outcome of a vote by written ballot in lieu of a meeting shall be determined by the Board of Directors within forty-eight (48) hours of the deadline for return of ballots, or in the event the ballot return date is postponed, within forty-eight (48) hours of the postponed date. Matters that may be voted on by written ballot shall be deemed approved or rejected as follows:

(i) If approval of a proposed action would otherwise require a meeting at which a certain quorum must be present and at which a certain percentage of total votes cast is required to authorize the action, the proposal will be deemed to be approved when the date for return of ballots has passed, a quorum of owners has voted and the required percentage of approving votes has been received. Otherwise, the proposal shall be deemed to be rejected.

(ii) If approval of a proposed action otherwise would require a meeting at which a specified percentage of owners must authorize the action, the proposal shall be deemed to be approved when the percentage of total votes cast in favor of the proposal equals or exceeds such required percentage. The proposal shall be deemed to be rejected when the number of votes cast in opposition renders approval impossible or when both the date for return of ballots has passed and such required percentage has not been met.

(iii) Votes may be counted from time to time before the final return date to determine whether the proposal has passed or failed by the votes already cast on the date they are entered.

2.17 Absentee Ballots. Members entitled to vote may vote by absentee ballot. For all matters that require a vote of the membership, the Board shall distribute "absentee ballots" to those who have specifically requested such a ballot. In addition, the Board may distribute absentee ballots to all members for any matter to be voted upon. The absentee ballot shall be the same ballot used by those who vote in person at a regular or special meeting, except for statements that the ballot being used is an absentee ballot. Absentee ballots may be received up until the time any such meeting begins. A member may not vote in person at a meeting if they have already submitted an absentee ballot.

2.18 Elections; Voting. As set forth in the Declaration, at each election for the persons to serve on the Board of Directors of the Association, every Member entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to one vote on each matter or issue, in person or by proxy, for each vote to which such Member is entitled. Cumulative voting is not allowed.

2.19 Records. Records of the proceedings of meetings of Members shall be kept at the registered office of the Association.

ARTICLE III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 Number of Directors. The business of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Directors comprised of at least three (3) but no more than seven (7) persons, all of whom shall be required to be a Member of the Association, a spouse of a Member, or an officer, director, or principal of a legal entity that is a Member.

3.2 Elections-Term of Office. Each director so elected shall hold office for the term elected and until his/her successor is elected and qualified.

At each election each Member, or his proxy, may cast one vote for each vacancy. Cumulative voting is not allowed. The person(s) receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected.

3.3 Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist upon the death, resignation or removal from office of a director, or if the Members increase the number of directors and fail to elect the full number of authorized directors.

Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, though they constitute less than a quorum of a full Board of Directors and such appointed Directors shall hold office for the unexpired term. No reduction of the number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of his/her term of office.

3.4 Meetings.

(a) Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as determined by the Board of Directors. The Board may adopt a schedule of meetings, to be provided to requesting Owners.

(b) Within fifteen (15) days following each annual meeting of Members of the Association, the Board of Directors shall hold a regular meeting for the purpose of organization, election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. No formal notice of such meeting need be given.

(c) Special meetings of the Board of Directors of the Association may be called for any purpose at any time by the President or by the Vice-President or by any two directors.

(d) Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least ten (10) days prior to the time set for such meeting by written notice delivered personally, emailed, texted or mailed to each director at his/her business address or by email. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director to a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of the business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting of the Board of Directors need not be given to absent directors if the time and place be fixed at the meeting adjourned.

3.5. Quorum. A majority of the duly elected and qualified Directors comprising the Board of Directors as fixed by the Declaration and Bylaws shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Board of Directors for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as hereinafter provided, and the actions and decisions of a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act or acts of the Board of Directors. Provided, however, that if all of the directors shall approve the proceedings of a meeting of the Board of Directors by execution of that approval in the minutes or other records of the meeting, such meeting shall be legal regardless of the manner in which it was called, or the number of directors present.

3.6 Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting in accordance with Title 16 Chapter 6a Section 813 of the Utah Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act.

3.7 Adjournment. A quorum of the directors may adjourn any director's meeting to meet again at a stated day and hour; provided that in the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present at the meeting, either general or special, may adjourn from time to time until a quorum shall be present and prior to the time fixed for the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors.

3.8 Compensation. Directors shall not receive any stated salary for their services as directors but the expenses incurred in the performance of their duties may be allowed.

3.9 Removal. A member of the Board of Directors, or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of a majority of all the Members. The removal of a director, or the entire Board of Directors, in the manner prescribed in this Section may occur at any special meeting of the Members called for that purpose.

3.10 Presumption of Assent. A director of the Association who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any Association matters is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his/her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless such director shall file written dissent to such action with the person acting as secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the Secretary of the Association immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

3.11 Powers. The property, business and affairs of the Association shall be controlled and managed by a Board of Directors and it shall have all lawful powers necessary or convenient to carry out the same unless prohibited by law, the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or the Declaration.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

4.1 Authorized Officers. The officers of the Association shall be a President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, which shall be elected by the Board of Directors as provided in Section 4.3 of this Article. At its discretion, the Board of Directors may elect one or more Vice-Presidents, a general manager and such other officers and agents as may be necessary for the business of the Association and specify the duties and authority of each.

4.2 Combining Offices. Any two (2) or more of the offices may be combined in one person except President and Secretary.

4.3 Election of Officers. The officers of the Association, except those appointed in accordance with Section 4.4 of this Article, shall be chosen by the Board of Directors annually at their meeting following the annual meeting of the Members.

Each officer shall hold office for one (1) year or until such officer's successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until such his/her death or until he/she shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner provided in Section 4.5 of this Article.

4.4 Filling Vacancies. A vacancy in any office from whatever cause may be filled at any regular or special meeting of the Board of directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

4.5 Removal. Any officer or agent of the Association may be removed by action of the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof by a majority vote of the directors in office.

4.6 Resignation. The resignation of any officer or agent of the Association shall become effective by written notice to the Board of Directors, President or Secretary at the time therein specified, without acceptance by the Board, of Directors.

4.7 Powers and Duties of Officers.

(a) President. The President (i) shall be the chief officer of the Association generally supervising the performance of all business policies adopted and approved by the Board of Directors; (ii) shall be the general managing officer of the operations of the Association; (iii) shall preside at all meetings of Members and the Board of Directors; (iv) shall be responsible for long-term planning of financial policies of the Association and periodically shall report and recommend financial policies and programs to the Board of Directors; (v) may sign, with attestation by the Secretary, certificates of membership in the Association and with or without attestation any deeds, mortgages, bonds, notes, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed. The President shall perform those duties and have and exercise that authority and responsibility customarily incident to the office of president of a corporation of the nature of this one and, furthermore, shall perform those special duties and functions delegated to the President by the Board of Directors.

(b) Vice-President. In the absence of the President or in the event of the President's death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice-president (or in the event there by more than one Vice-president, the Vice-Presidents in the order designated at the time of their election, or in the absence of any designation, then in the order of their election) shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all restrictions upon the President. The Vice-president shall be direction responsible to the President and shall have such authority and perform such duties as shall be assigned to him/her by the President or by the Board of Directors.

(c) Secretary. The Secretary shall: (i) keep the minutes of the proceedings of the Members and of the Board of Directors in one or more books provided for that purpose; (ii) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law; (iii) be custodian of the corporate records and of the seal of the Association and see that the seal of the Association is affixed to all documents, the execution of which, on behalf of the Association, under its seal is authorized and directed by the Board of Directors; (iv) keep a register of the post office address of each Member which shall be furnished to the Secretary by such Member; (v) sign with the President, or Vice-president, certificates of membership in the Association, the issuance of which shall have been authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors; (vi) have general charge of the membership book of the Association; and (vii) in general perform all duties incident to the office of the Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him/her by the President or by the Board of Directors. In the event a vacancy exists in the office of Vice-president, the Secretary shall have the power and duties specified in Section 4.7(b) of this Article IV.

(d) Treasurer. The Treasurer shall (i) keep full and accurate account of the receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Association and shall ensure the deposit of all monies and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Association at such banks and depositories as may be designated by the Board, but shall not be personally liable for the safekeeping of any funds or securities so deposited pursuant to the order of the Board; (ii) disburse the funds of the Association as may be ordered by the Board, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements and shall render to the President and directors at the regular meetings of the Board and, whenever they may require, accounts of all transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the Association; and (iii) perform the duties usually incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or by the President and those duties set forth in the Declaration. The Treasurers duties may be delegated to a professional bookkeeper, accountant or management company.

(e) Assistant Secretary-Assistant Treasurer. If and when elected, the Assistant Secretary or the Assistant Treasurer shall perform such duties and have such authority as prescribed by the President.

4.8. Bonds. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, require any or all of the officers of the Association to give a bond with sufficient surety, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices.

4.9. Salaries. No salaries are to be paid to Board members or officers. All such officers, directors and committee members shall be reimbursed for costs actually incurred.

ARTICLE V. COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors shall appoint an Architectural Control Committee, as provided in the Declaration. In addition, the Board of Directors shall appoint other committees as deemed appropriate in carrying out its purposes.

ARTICLE VI. CONTRACTS, LOANS, CHECKS AND DEPOSITS

6.1. Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Association and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

6.2. Loans. The Board of Directors may receive loans for the benefit of the HOA, however, loans in excess of the annual assessment per Lot or Dwelling Unit shall be approved by a majority of those present in person or by proxy at a special meeting called for such purpose.

6.3. Checks, Drafts, Etc. All checks, drafts and other order for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Association shall be signed by such officer or officers, employee or employees, or agent or agents of the Association and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors.

6.4. Deposits. All funds of the Association not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Association in such banks, trust companies and other depositories as the Board of Directors may select.

ARTICLE VII. ASSESSMENTS

The Association shall have the right to assess, levy and collect Assessments as provided in the Amended and Restated Declaration, which assessments may be enforced as provided in the said Amended and Restated Declaration.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENTS

8.1 Board of Directors. These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed and new Bylaws may be adopted by the Board of Directors as provided for in Title 16 Chapter 6a Section 1010 of the Utah Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act, or if so provided in the Articles of Incorporation, by the Members at any regular or special meeting.

8.2 Conflict. In the case of any conflict between the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws, the Articles shall control; and in the case of any conflict between the Declaration and these Bylaws, the Declaration shall control.

ARTICLE IX. GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.1 Ownership Interest. Except as may be specifically provided to the contrary in the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or the Declaration, every Member shall have the same rights and interests in the Association and in the real and personal property owned by the Association and no Member can have or acquire a greater interest therein than any other Member.

9.2 Suspension of Rights. The rights of a Member may be suspended or withdrawn as more particularly provided in the Declaration. The loss of such rights shall not relieve the Member from the Member's obligation to pay any of the Assessments properly levied by the Board. Restoration of full rights of membership must meet the conditions prescribed by the Board which may include payment of all amounts due the Association, execution and delivery of covenants and/or other security that future violations will not occur and any other terms and conditions reasonably imposed by the Board.

9.3. Contracts. The Association shall have the power to enter into any contracts and incur indebtedness on behalf of the Association, but shall be specifically limited by the limitations, if any, contained in the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or the Declaration.

9.4. Rules, Regulations and Standards. The Board shall have the power to promulgate rules, regulations and standards for its own government, to aid and assist the Board and its committees in the carrying out of duties and to set standards of design, construction, maintenance in addition to establishing the rules of conduct of Owners and occupants and Members of the Association. Reasonable fines may also be levied to help ensure compliance of the covenants, rules and policies of the Association.

9.6. Inspection of Records. The Association shall keep at its registered office records of proceedings of the Members and of the Board of Directors. Each Member shall have the right to examine in person or person's attorney at any reasonable time or times during regular business, for any reasonable purpose, any and all of the books and records of the Association and to make extracts therefrom.
