Assigned in Book 114 Page 394

And for an additional consideration of One ($1.00) Dollar, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, said grantors hereby grant unto said grantee the right at any time to lay, maintain, operate, inspect, replace, change or remove an additional pipe line or pipe lines alongside of said first pipe line for the transportation of oil, gas, gasoline or other petroleum products on, over and through said land, and grantee agrees to pay grantors for each additional pipe line placed on said land by it the sum of Sixteen and No/100 Dollars on or before the time grantee commences to construct such pipe line on, over and through said land. Said payment may be made direct to grantor or deposited to credit of the grantors in the First National Bank of Farmington, Utah.

Grantors reserve the right to use said land for any and all purposes except the purpose hereby granted to said Grantee. Grantee agrees to pay any damages caused by grantee's operations hereunder, to said land, and to the improvements, crops, pasturage, fences and livestock of grantors on said land, on the basis of the status, condition, and use of said land and the improvements thereon, at the date of this contract. In the event the parties hereto cannot agree upon the amount of said damages, then the amount thereof shall be ascertained and determined by three disinterested persons selected as follows: One by said grantors, one by said grantee and the third by the two so selected, and the written award of any two of said three persons so selected shall be final and conclusive on the parties hereto. Any pipe line laid hereunder shall be buried so it will not interfere with cultivation of the surface of said premises.

It is agreed that the terms, conditions and provisions of this contract shall extend to and be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties hereto.
