Any cost of such repair and restoration in excess of the insurance proceeds shall constitute a common expense and the Management Committee may assess all the unit owners for such deficit as part of the common charges.

If seventy-five (75%) percent or more of the building is destroyed or substantially damaged and seventy-five (75%) percent or more of the unit owners do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with repair or reconstruction, the condominium property shall be subject to an action for partition by any unit owner or leinor, as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of insurance policies (or if there shall have been a repair or restoration pursuant to the first paragraph of Section 3 and the amount of insurance proceeds shall have exceeded the cost of such repair or restoration then the excess of such insurance proceeds) shall be divided by the Management Committee among all of the unit owners in proportion to their respective common interests, after first paying out of the share of each unit owner the amount of any unpaid liens on his condominium unit, in the order of the priority of such liens.

Section 4. Payment of Common Charges. All unit owners shall be obligated to pay the common charges assessed by the Management Committee, pursuant to the provisions of Section 1 of Areccle V, at such time or times as the Management Committee shall determine.

Each unit owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the common charges assessed against his condominium unit subject to a sale, transfer, or other conveyance by him thereof (made in accordance with the provisions of Section 1 of Article VII of these By-Laws). Joint purchasers of a condominium unit shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of common charges assessed against a condominium unit subsequent to the acquisition by them of such condominium. A mortgagee or other purchaser of a condominium unit as a result of foreclosure or deed in lieu thereof shall not be subject to a lien for the payment of common charges assessed prior to the foreclosure sale or deed.

Section 5. Collection of Assessments. The Management Committee shall assess common charges against the unit owners from time to time and at least annually and shall take prompt action to collect from a unit owner any common charge due which remains unpaid by him for more than thirty (30) days from the due date of its payment.

Section 6. Default in Payment of Common Charges.

(a) If any unit owner shall fail or refuse to make any payment of the common expenses when due, the amount thereof shall constitute a lien on the interest of the owner of the property and upon the recording of notice thereof by the Management Committee, shall be a lien upon the unit owner's interest in the property prior to all other liens and encumbrances, recorded and unrecorded, except only:

- (1) tax and special assessment liens; and
- (2) prior recorded encumbrances which are superior as a matter of law.
- (b) In the event of default by any unit owner in paying to the Management Committee the assessed common charges, such unit owner shall be obligated to pay interest at the rate of twelve (12%) percent per annum on such common charges from the date due thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney fees, incurred by the Management Committee in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid common charges. The Management Committee shall have the right and duty to attempt to recover such common charges, together with interest thereon, and the expenses of the proceeding, including attorney fees, in an action brought against such unit owner or by a foreclosure of the lien on such condominium unit.
- (c) Upon payment of a delinquent assessment the Management Committee shall cause a satisfaction of lien filed in cases where a notice of lien has been filed.
- (d) If a unit owner shall at any time let or sublet the unit and shall be in default for a period of one month in the payment of any assessments, the Management Committee may, at its option and so long as such default shall continue, demand and receive from any tenant or subtenant of the owner occupying the unit the rent due or becoming due and payment of such rent to the Management Committee shall be payment and discharge of such tenant or subtenant and the owner of the unit to the extent of the amount so paid. No action on the part of the Management Committee under this section shall have the effect of relieving its unit owner of primary liability.

Section 7. Foreclosure of Liens for Unpaid Charges. In any action brought by the Management Committee to foreclose a lien on a condominium unit because of unpaid common charges, the unit owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use of his condominium unit and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect such rental. The Management Committee, acting on behalf of all unit owners, shall have power to purchase such condominium unit at the foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, vote the votes appurtenant to convey, or otherwise deal with the same. A suit to recover money judgment for unpaid common charges shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same.

Section 8. Statement of Common Charges. The Mangement Committee shall promptly provide any unit owner who makes a request in writing with a written statement of his common charges.

Section 9. Abatement and Enjoining of Violations. The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Management Committee, or the breach of any By-Law contained herein, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration or the Act, shall give the Management Committee the right, in addition to any other rights available at law or set forth in these By-Laws:

- (a) to enter the condominium unit in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to sumarily abate and remove as permitted by law, at the expense of the defaulting unit owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist therin contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof, and the Management Committee shall not thereby be deemed guilty in any manner of trespass; or
- (b) to enjoin, abate or remedy such thing or condition by appropriate legal proceeding.

  Section 10. Maintenance and Repair.
- (a) All maintenance of and repairs to any condominium unit, structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary (other than maintenance of the repairs to any common elements contained therein not necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of the owner of such condominium unit), shall be made by the owner of such condominium unit. Each unit owner shall be responsible for all damage to any other condominium unit and to the common elements resulting from his failure to effect such maintenance and repairs.
- (b) All maintenance, repairs and replacements of the common elements, whether located inside or outside of the condominium units (unless necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of the unit owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to the unit owner), shall be made by the Management Committee and be charged to all the unit owners as a common expense.

Section 11. Use of Condominium Units. In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the condominium property and for the protection of the values of the condominium units, the use of the condominium property shall be subject

- (a) The condominium units shall be used for residences only, except as the association may choose to purchase and use a unit as a management office or for any other lawful purpose not repugnant to a residential development.
- (b) The common elements shall be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities for which they are reasonably suited and which are incidental to the use and occupancy of condominium units.
- (c) No unlawful nuisances shall be allowed on the condominium property nor shall any unlawful use or practice be allowed which is a scurce of annoyance to its residents or which interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the condominium property by its residents.
- (d) All valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be complied with. Such compliance shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the unit owners or the Management Committee, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the condominium property.
- (e) No portion of a condominium unit (other than the entire condominium unit) may be rented and the minimum rental period shall be one month.

Section 12 Additions, Alterations, or Improvements by Unit Owners. No unit owner shall make any structural addition, alteration or improvement in or to his condominium unit, without the prior written consent thereto of the Management Committee. The Management Committee shall have the obligation to answer any written request by a unit owner for approval of a proposed structural addition, alteration or improvement in such unit owner's condominium unit within fifteen (15) days of such request, and failure to do so within the stipulated time shall constitute a consent by the Management Committee to the proposed addition, alteration or improvement. Any application to any governmental authority for a permit to make an addition, alteration or improvement in or to any condominium unit shall be executed by the Management Committee. The Management Committee shall not be liable to any contractor, subcontractor, materialman or to any person sustaining personal injury or property damage, for any claim arising in connection with such addition, alteration or improvement. The provisions of this Section 12 shall not apply to condominium units owned by the Declarant until such condominium units shall have been initially sold by the Declarant and paid for.

Section 13. Water Charges and Sewer Rents. Water charges shall be supplied to all of the condominium units and the common elements through one or more building meters and the Management Committee shall pay, as a common expense, all charges for water consumed on the condominium property, together with all related sewer rents arising therefrom, promptly after the bills therefor are rendered. In the event of a proposed sale of the condominium unit by the owner thereof, the Management Committee, on request of the selling unit owner, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser of such condominium unit or to the purchaser's title insurance company or lender, a letter agreeing to pay all charges for water and sewer rents affecting the property as of the date of closing of title to such condominium unit promptly after such charges shall have been billed.
