said property do hereby declare the property hereinabove described subject to the restrictions and covenants herein recited.

1. These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding on all persons claiming under them from date hereof until March 21, 1997, at which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten years unless by vote of a majority of the then owners of the lots it is agreed to change said covenants in whole or in part.

2. If the parties hereto, or any of them or their heirs or assigns, shall violate or attempt to violate any of the covenants herein, it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning real property situated on the above described tract to prose-a committee composed of M. Paul Mertlich or William Grant Bangarter or M. Paul Mertlich, Jr., or Samuel Bangarter, or by a representative designated by a majority of the members of said committee. In the event of death or resignation of any member of said committee, the remaining member shall have full authority to approve or disapprove such design and location, or to designate a representative with like authority. In the event said committee, or its designated representative, fails to approve or disapprove such design of such alterations has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, such approval will not be required and this covenants will be deemed to have been fully complied with. Neither the members of such committee, nor its designated representative, shall be entitled to any compensation for services performed pursuant to this covenant. The powers and duties of such committee, and of its designated representative shall cease on or after March 21, 1997. Thereafter, the approval described in this covenant shall not be required unless, prior to said date and effective thereon a written instrument shall be executed by the then record owners of a majority of the lots above described and duly recorded appointing a representative or representatives, who shall thereafter exercise the same powers previously exercised by said committee.
