Article II Architectural Control Committee

Section 1. Duties of the Architectural Control Committee. Duties of the Architectural Control Committee (hereinafter the "Committee"), consisting of three (3) members in hereby created, and the undersigned may fill vacancies in the Committee and remove members at will. When ninety percent (90%) of the lots in the subdivision have been sold (either deeded or sold under contract of sale) thereafter, upon designation of eighty-five percent (85%) of those who are owners (either by contract or purchase or in fee) of lots in said tract, of some person or persons whom such owners desire to make a member or members of said Committee, the undersigned will appoint such person or persons to the Committee, and if necessary, will remove from said Committee existing members in order to create vacancies for the new appointments. However, one person designated by the undersigned shall always remain a member if said Committee if the undersigned so desires. The functions of said Committee shall be in addition to the functions elsewhere in the Declaration set forth, to pass upon, approve or reject any plans or specifications for structures to be erected on lots in the subdivision, so that all structures shall conform to the restrictions and general plans of the undersigned, and of the Committee for the improvement and development of the entire subdivision. The Committee shall review all plans or specifications for structures to be erected on lots, including but not limited to the type of materials, colors, etc. A color selection board, three sets of wet stamped plans, including plot plan and fee of $400.00 shall be submitted to the Committee. The Committee shall review said plans and notification of approval or rejection shall be made in writing within 72 hours from submittal. Any corrections to plans shall be made in writing and returned within 48 hours to the person submitting said plans. Plans shall be submitted and approved before they are submitted to Alpine City. The Committee has the authority and is empowered to change or waive any restrictions which are set forth in this Declaration, even if it is contrary to the covenants, restrictions or conditions of this Declaration. The Committee may act by any two (2) of its members, and any authorization, approval or power made by the Committee must be in writing signed by at least two (2) members.

Section 2. Enforcement. The Architectural Control Committee or any owner shall have the right to enforce by proceedings at law or in equity all restrictions, conditions, covenants, reservations, liens and charges now or hereafter imposed by the provisions of this Declaration or any Amendment thereto, including the right affected lot owner agree that if the court finds on favor of the party bringing the action to enforce the covenants herein contained, that such lot owner or owners shall pay a reasonable attorney's fee as such fees may be fixed by the court.

Section 3. Indemnification of Committee Members. The Architectural Control Committee shall be indemnified for any omission, commission, etc. on any and all action that they take in the enforcement or non-enforcement of these Restrictions.

ARTICLE: III Violations and Powers of Enforcement

Section 1: The Committee's Powers of Enforcement. Enforcement shall be accomplished by any lawful means, including proceedings at law or in equity against any person or persons violating or attempting to violate any provision herein, either to restrain violation or recover damages. In the event a legal action is instituted by the Committee to enforce compliance with or due to a breach of any of the provisions of this Declaration, the party found to have violated any provision(s) of this Declaration shall be liable to the prevailing party for the prevailing party's legal costs and expenses, including a reasonable attorney's fee. If after fourteen (14) day's written notice, an Owner fails to remedy a violation (the "Defaulting Lot Owner"), another Owner and/or the Committee may (in addition to other lawful remedies available to it) cause such violation or condition to be remedied and the cost thereof shall be charged to the Defaulting Lot Owner in which event such costs shall be deemed a special assessment to such Defaulting Lot Owner and shall attach as a lien to the Defaulting Lot Owner's Lot, and shall be subject to levy enforcement and collection by the other Owner, and/or the Committee, in accordance with the collection by the assessment lien procedure provided in Article III, Section 2. Failure to enforce any provisions hereof shall not constitute a waiver of the right to enforce said provision or any other provisions hereof.

Section 2: Lien and Collection of Assessments. All sums assessed to an Owner pursuant to this Declaration, together with interest thereon at the legal rate of interest from the date of assessment until paid, before or after judgement, shall be secured by a lien on such lot and the improvements thereon, in favor of the Committee. To evidence a lien for sums assessed pursuant to this Declaration, the Committee shall prepare a written notice of lien setting forth the amount of the Assessment, the date due, the amount remaining unpaid, the name of the Owners of the Lot, and a description for the Lot. Such notice shall be signed by a duly authorized representative of the Committee and shall be recorded in the Office of the County Recorder of Utah County, State of Utah. Such lien may be enforced by sale or foreclosure of the Lot encumbered by the lien at a foreclosure sale conducted by the Committee and generally in accordance with the provisions of Utah law applicable to the exercise of powers of sale or foreclosure under deed of trust or mortgage or in any manner permitted by Utah law. In any such sale or foreclosure, the Owner shall be required to pay the costs and expenses of such proceeding, including but not limited to a reasonable attorneys fee and court costs, and such costs and expenses shall be secured by the lien herein provided whether or not same shall be specifically set forth therein.

Section 3. Additional Enforcement. Additionally, and after reasonable notice in writing, an Owner not at the time in default hereunder, the Committee, or the Declarant, shall have the option of bringing an action for damages, specific performance, or injunctive relief against any defaulting Owner, and in addition may sue to have enjoined any violation of this Declaration. Any judgement shall include an award of the legal costs and expenses, including a reasonable attorney's fee, entered against the losing party and in favor of the prevailing party. Each remedy provided in this Declaration shall be cumulative and not exclusive or exhaustive. Suit to recover a money judgment may be maintained without foreclosure of waiving the lien securing the same.

Section 4. Right of Entry. The Committee shall have a limited right of entry in and upon all lots and the exterior of all residences for the purpose of taking whatever corrective action it deems necessary or proper. Nothing in this Section or Article shall in any manner limit to right of the Owner to exclusive control over the interior of his or her residence.

Section 5. Committee Authority. The Committee shall have the right to enforce any applicable provision hereof in the same manner provided to the Committee.

ARTICLE: IV General Provisions

Section 1: Animals. No animals, livestock, or poultry of any kind shall be raised, bred, or kept on any lots, except dogs, cats, or other household pets may be kept on the lots, provided they are not kept, bred, or maintained for any commercial purpose and shall not exceed two (2) in number. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such dog or cat permitted upon the premises shall be kept on the property, which results in any annoyance or becomes obnoxious to residents in the vicinity. Except for lots 4,5, 10, 11 and 34 can have horses pursuant to the ordinances of Alpine City.

Section 2: Landscaping. All lots fully landscaped from curb including parking strip to rear line of house. To be completed within one (1) year of occupancy. Rear yards to be completed within two (2) years of occupancy.

Section 3: Acceptance of Restrictions. All purchasers of property described above shall, by acceptance of contracts or deeds for every lot or lots shown therein, or any portion thereof, are hereby conclusively deemed to have consented and agree to all restrictions, conditions, covenants, and agreements set forth herein.

Section 4: Duration. This Declaration shall continue in full force and effect for a period of forty (40) years from the date hereof, after which time the same shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years.

Section 5: Amendment. This Declaration can be amended if the record title owners of 53 of the 56 lots, according to the Utah County Recorder's Office, can agree in writing to amend this Declaration. Lot owners, even though there is more than one owner for a particular lot, shall only have one vote per lot.

Section 6: Severability: Invalidation of any portion of this Declaration shall in no way effect any of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 7: Covenants Shall Run With The Land. All of the limitations, restrictions, easements, conditions and covenants herein shall run with the land and shall be binding on and for the benefit of all the property and all parties having or acquiring any right, title or interest in the Property or any part thereof and shall inure to the benefit of each owner and are imposed upon the Property as a servitude in favor of each parcel thereof as the dominant tenement or tenements.

Section 8: Paragraph Headings. The heading which precede the paragraphs and sub-paragraphs of this Declaration are for convenience only and in no way affect the manner in which any provision hereof is construed.

Section 9: Foreclosure. Should any mortgage be foreclosed on the property, then the title acquired by such foreclosure and the person or persons who thereupon and thereafter become the owner or owners of such Property, shall be subject to and bound by all the restrictions enumerated herein.
