7. Remedies.

(a) Notice of Default. Lender will give a notice of default to Borrower following Borrower's breach of any covenant or agreement in this Security Instrument. The notice will specify, in addition to any other information required by applicable law: (i) the default; (ii) the action required to cure the default; (iii) that failure to cure the default on or before the date specified in the notice may result in the sale of the Property; and (iv) Borrower's right to bring a court action to deny the existence of a default or to assert any other defense of Borrower to the sale.

(b) Power of Sale; Expenses. If the default is not cured on or before the date specified in the notice, Lender without further demand may invoke the power of sale and any other remedies permitted by applicable law. Lender will be entitled to collect all expenses incurred in pursuing its remedies, including, but not limited to: (i) reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and (ii) other fees incurred to protect Lender's interest in the Property and/or rights under this Security Instrument.

(c) Notice of Sale; Sale of Property. If Lender invokes the power of sale, Trustee will execute a written notice of the occurrence of an event of default and of the election to cause the Property to be sold and will record such notice in each county in which any part of the Property is located. Lender or Trustee will mail copies of such notice, in the manner prescribed by applicable law, to Borrower and to other required recipients. In the event Borrower does not cure the default within the period then prescribed by applicable law, Trustee will give public notice of the sale to the persons and in the manner prescribed by applicable law. At a time permitted by, and in accordance with applicable law, Trustee, without further demand on Borrower, will sell the Property at public auction to the highest bidder at the time and place and under the terms designated in the notice of sale in one or more parcels and in any order Trustee determines (but subject to any statutory right of Borrower to direct the order in which the Property, if consisting of several known lots or parcels, will be sold). Lender or its designee may purchase the Property at any sale.

The recitals in the Trustee's deed will be prima facie evidence of the truth of the statements made in that deed. Trustee will apply the proceeds of the sale in the following order: (i) to all expenses of the sale, including, but not limited to, reasonable Trustee's and attorneys' fees and costs; (ii) to all sums secured by this Security Instrument; and (iii) any excess to the person or persons legally entitled to it or to the county clerk of the county in which the sale took place.

(e) Secretary's Remedies. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraphs (a)-(d), if the Lender's interest in this Security Instrument is held by the Secretary and the Secretary requires immediate payment in full under Paragraph 4 of the Note, the Secretary may invoke the nonjudicial power of sale provided in the Single Family Mortgage Foreclosure Act of 1994 ("Act") (12 U.S.C. § 3751 et seq.) by requesting a foreclosure commissioner designated under the Act to commence foreclosure and to sell the Property as provided in the Act. Nothing in the preceding sentence will deprive the Secretary of any rights otherwise available to a Lender under this section 7 or applicable law.

8. Reconveyance. Upon payment of all sums secured by this Security Instrument, Lender will request Trustee to reconvey the Property and will surrender this Security Instrument and all notes evidencing the debt secured by this Security Instrument to Trustee. Upon such request, Trustee will reconvey the Property without warranty to the person or persons legally entitled to it. Borrower will pay any recordation costs associated with such reconveyance. Lender may charge Borrower a fee for reconveying the Property, only if the fee is paid to a third party (such as the Trustee) for services rendered and is permitted under applicable law.

9. Substitute Trustee. Lender may, from time to time, by itself or through the loan servicer, remove Trustee and appoint a successor trustee to any Trustee appointed under this Security Instrument. Without conveyance of the Property, the successor trustee will succeed to all the rights, title, power, and duties conferred upon Trustee in this Security Instrument and by applicable law.

10. Request for Notices. Borrower requests that copies of the notices of default and sale be sent to Borrower's address which is the Property Address.

BY SIGNING BELOW, Borrower accepts and agrees to the terms contained in this Security Instrument and in any rider(s) signed by Borrower and recorded with it.
