AMMENDMENT TO THE WOODRIDGE PLANNED
DEVELOPMENT COVENANTS, CONDITIONS
RESTRICTIONS AND
GENERAL INFORMATION BROCHURE

UTAH COUNTY RECORDS

PROVO ABSTRACT CO.

17700

The WOODRIDGE PLANNED DEVELOPMENT is set on Zero Lot lines as shown on the Recorded Plat map filed at the County and all rights and privileges pertaining to this concept of property will apply namely that the five(5) foot easement on each lot will become the property line with the home being placed on this easement line. This then places the side of the home under the restrictions of the Party Wall as outlined in the Covenants. This easement then is for ingress and egress only and is to be maintained by the adjacent property owner to which the easement is deeded and there cannot be any structure or immovable object placed on this easement.

ARTICLE 11: PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 2.5 Zero Lot Line: As recorded with the County WOODRIDGE PLANNED DEVELOPMENT plat map shows zero lot lines or in particular a five (5) foot easement and the home is to be built on this easement line, unless approved by the WOODRIDGE PLANNED DEVELOPMENT HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION to be otherwise, and this easement is deeded to the adjacent property owner to be maintained by this said owner. This easement is for ingress and egress only and no structure or immovable object can be placed thereon.
- 2.6 Fences: The fences for WOODRIDGE PLANNED DEVELOPMENT will be laid out for zero lot line concepts such that a side yard exists on only one side of the home and the fence will die into the opposite side of the house thus making one side of the home the actual fence line or easement line and understood property line.

ARTICLE V111: PARTY WALLS

- 8.7 Maintenance of the Party Wall: It is understood that for a zero lot line concept, the zero lot line of the home becomes a Party Wall and is therefore to be maintained by the actual homeowner UNLESS, if damage occurs to the zero lot line side of the home from the adjacent property owner, all expenses and all replacement for said damage will be paid for by the adjacent property owner and must be fully repaired within 30 days from occurrence of damage. And if damage occurs to the zero lot line side of the home by anyone other than the actual owner of the home or the adjacent property owner who holds title to the easement for which the home sits on, then the General Rules of the Law apply as stated in item 8.1.
