HEARING

This matter comes before the court for a pretrial conference/return on bench warrant. A resolution has been reached. The defendant is advised of rights and penalties, including enhancement to future offenses, and acknowledges understanding. Defendant waives right to trial. Defendant pleads Guilty to count 1, Driving Under the Influence, a class B misdemeanor and the remaining count is dismissed. The court accepts the plea after a factual basis is given. The court finds that the defendant has knowingly, voluntarily and intentionally entered the pleas and the court receives the same. Defendant waives time for sentence. The Court imposes a sentence.

Defendant is to file proof of entering Pomarri treatment program with the court within a week of today's date. If proof has not been filed within 30 days, the court will issue an order to show cause.

The defendant has 30 days to appeal the sentence. The Court advises that if the sentence is appealed and representation is desired the Court will appoint counsel upon qualification.

[OFF RECORD] Bond is exonerated.
Credit is granted for time served.
