

in Brady Christian Nord's home 183 overnights each year. The court approves the following parenting plan.

Parenting plan parent-time

Parent-time will be equal between the parties. Andrea Robinson Nord will have parent-time starting Monday morning and ending Wednesday morning. Brady Christian Nord will have parent-time starting Wednesday morning and ending Friday morning. Each parent will alternate weekends having parent-time starting Friday morning and ending Monday morning. Transfers for parent-time will take place at the time the child's school begins or if school is not in session at 9:00 a.m., if the parent picking up the child is to be available with the children during the day.

The chart below shows how this schedule will function.

	Andrea Robinson Nord overnights	Brady Christian Nord overnights
Week 1 Weeknights	Monday Night Tuesday Night	Wednesday Night Thursday Night
Week 1 Weekend Nights	Friday Night Saturday Night Sunday Night
Week 2 Weeknights	Monday Night Tuesday Night	Wednesday Night Thursday Night
Week 2 Weekend Nights		Friday Night Saturday Night Sunday Night

Each year, a parent may choose two consecutive weeks to exercise uninterrupted parent-time during the summer when school is not in session. A parent will choose at least 30 days before the day on which the chosen two-week period begins. In even numbered years, Andrea Robinson Nord may choose at any time and Brady Christian Nord may choose after May 1. In odd numbered years, Brady Christian Nord may choose at any time and Andrea Robinson Nord may choose after May 1. The two consecutive weeks override all holidays except for Mother's Day and Father's Day.

Parent-time transfers

5. Pick-up and drop-off ("transfers") of the children for parent-time will be as described below:

The parties will make arrangements for pick up, delivery and return of the children prior to each scheduled parent-time.

Decision-making

6. The following applies to the Parenting Plan:

- Each parent will make day-to-day decisions for the children during the time they are caring for the children.
- Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the children. A parent who makes an emergency decision must share the decision with the other parent as soon as reasonably possible.

Joint decision-making. The parents will share responsibility for making major decisions about the children. If there is a disagreement, the parents will resolve the dispute as provided in the Resolving disputes section below.

Education Plan

7. The school the children will attend is based on a specific plan for where the children will attend school: The children attend Weilenmann School of Discovery in Summit Park. If we decide to place them at their local school, they will attend Butler Elementary, which is in both of our home boundaries.

8. Andrea Robinson Nord has authority to check the children out of school.

9. Brady Christian Nord has authority to check the children out of school.

10. Andrea Robinson Nord has access to the children during school.

11. Brady Christian Nord has access to the children during school.

Communication with each other

12. Parents will communicate with each other by any method.

Communication with the children

13. The parents agree they will:

- provide age-appropriate help to the children to communicate with the other parent.
- give the children privacy during their communication with the other parent. The parents will not interfere with or monitor communication between the children and the other parent.

Parents and children may communicate with each other whenever the children choose.

Records and information sharing

14. Both parents will have access to records and the ability to consult with providers regarding education, child care, and health care.

Travel by the children

15. During their parent-time, the parent may consent for the children to travel with a sports team, religious group, school group, relatives, friends, by themselves, or with others. If the children will be travelling for more than 3 days, the parent arranging the travel will notify the other parent at least 3 days in advance. That parent will give the other parent the travel schedule, locations and phone numbers at least 3 days in advance. In case of emergency, the parent will provide as much notice as possible.

Relocation of a parent (Utah Code 30-3-37)

16. If either parent moves more than 149 miles from the other, the moving parent must give the non-moving parent a written Notice of Relocation. The notice must be sent at least 60 days before the planned move.

The written Notice of Relocation must include:

- Information about the move;
- A proposed parent-time schedule; and
- A statement that the parents will not interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

If the moving parent does not give the non-moving parent a Notice of Relocation, the moving parent will be in contempt of the Court's order.

17. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other, or if the parents live a different countries, parent-time will be as the parties agree. If they are unable to agree, the following will be the minimum parent-time for the noncustodial parent:

Relocation Schedule (Utah Code 30-3-37)

- a. in years ending in odd number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:
 - i. Thanksgiving holiday beginning Wednesday until Sunday; and
 - ii. spring break, if applicable, beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes;
- b. in years ending in an even number, the minor children will spend the following holidays with the noncustodial parent:
 - i. the entire winter school break period; and
 - ii. the fall school break beginning the last day of school before the holiday until the day before school resumes; and
- c. extended parent-time equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the summer or off-track time for consecutive weeks. The children will be returned to the custodial home no later than seven days before school begins. This week will be counted when determining the amount of parent-time to be divided between the parents for the summer or off-track period. The parties will mutually agree on this extended time each year. If they are unable to agree, the noncustodial parent will select the dates for the extended time period.
- d. One weekend per month at the option and expense of the noncustodial parent. The noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement is subject to the following restrictions.
 - i. If the noncustodial parent has not designated a specific weekend for parent-time, the noncustodial parent will receive the last weekend of each month unless a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on that particular weekend. If a holiday assigned to the custodial parent falls on the last weekend of the month, the noncustodial parent will be entitled to the next to the last weekend of the month.
 - ii. If a noncustodial parent's extended parent-time or parent-time over a holiday extends into or through the first weekend of the next month, that weekend will be considered the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend entitlement for that month.
 - iii. If a child is out of school for teacher development days or snow days after the children begin the school year, or other days not included in the list of holidays in Subsection (5) and those days are contiguous with the noncustodial parent's monthly weekend parent-time, those days will be included in the weekend parent-time.

e. The custodial parent is entitled to all parent-time not specifically allocated to the noncustodial parent.

18. If either parent lives more than 149 miles away from the other or the parents live in separate countries, costs for the children's travel expenses for parent-time will be shared equally.

If a parent has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, and they do not have primary physical care of the child, they will be responsible for the child's related travel expenses.

Reimbursement the child's travel expenses must be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

Changing the plan

19. This plan remains in effect until changed. A change must be agreed to by both parents and in the following manner:

- Major or permanent changes must be in writing, but minor or temporary changes can be made orally.

Resolving disputes

20. If the parents need to resolve a dispute regarding the children, they will discuss the issues in good faith and try to reach an agreement based on what is best for their children. If the parents are unable to agree, they will go to the following before bringing the issue to the court: Counseling
