Section 3. Property means that certain real property hereinbefore described.

Section 4. Common Area means that portion of property owned by the Association, shown on the plat as dedicated to the common use and enjoyment of the owners.

Section 7. Combination of lots. In the event two or more adjacent lots are held in identical ownership, the lots may be combined for use and construction purposes. The common or limited common areas which are between the private ownership areas in each of the adjacent lots may be occupied for construction of a single Garden home, the owner having an easement for this purpose under, across and over such common and limited common areas. For example, If lots 10 and 11 of the original plat were owned by the same, and the owner desired to construct a single Garden home, the Garden home could occupy the area between lots 10 and 11 (east of lot 11 and west of lot 10) which is designated on the plat as common area. The owner would be required to respect the common and limited common areas in the other, no-adjacent, boundaries of the lots.

In the event of such Garden home construction across common or limited common areas between adjacent lots, all easement and rights of the Association, its members and third parties, such as utilities, in such area which had been exercised prior to construction of the Garden home would remain in place, in perpetuity. However, all easement and other rights which had not been used prior to construction of the Garden home could not thereafter be exercised.

Section 10. Association means Whit's Court Association, its successors and assigns.

Section 11. Member means every person or entity who holds membership in the Association. Every member is an owner, and every owner is a Member.

Section 12. Trustees mean the governing body of the Association.

Section 13. Declarant includes Norman Whitaker, and Danny C. Bridenstine, and the Declarant's heirs, successors and assigns, but excludes grantees of a Declarant unless the Declarant's rights are specifically assigned.

Section 14. Mortgagee includes "deed of trust" and mortgagee includes "trust deed beneficiary."

Section 2. Voting rights. The association has two classes of voting membership: Class A. Class A members are all members with the exception of the Declarant. Class A members are entitled to one vote for each lot owned. When more than one person holds an interest in any lot, the group of such persons shall be a member. The vote for such lot shall be exercised as they among themselves determine, but in no event shall more than one vote be cast with respect to any lot. A vote cast at any association meeting by any of such co-owners, whether in person or by proxy, is conclusively presumed to be the vote attributable to the lot concerned unless written objection is made prior to that meeting, or verbal objection is made, the vote involved shall not be counted for any purpose except to determine whether a quorum exists.

Class B. Class B membership will cease and be converted to Class A membership on happening of either of the following events, whichever occurs earlier:

- a) Upon conveyance of the seventy-five percent (75%) of the lots subject to this Declaration to purchasers; or
- b) The expiration of four (4) years from the first lot conveyance to purchaser.

Any person occupying a lot as a renter or lessee does not have a voting membership in the Association and only lot owners with a Class A membership may vote; provided, however, that a person occupying a lot as a renter or lessee may vote in place of the owner of the lot being rented or leased if such person has received a written notarized statement from the lot owner stating the lot owner's vote on the matter at hand.

- b) The Association may change the basis and maximum of the assessments fixed by this Section prospectively for any annual period provided that any such change shall have the assent of sixty-seven percent (67%) of the votes of each class of members, voting in person or by proxy, at a meeting duly called for this purpose.

Section 4. Special Assessments for Capital Improvements. In addition to the annual assessments, the Association may levy in any assessment year, a special assessment applicable to that year only. No such subsequent meeting shall be held more than sixty (60) days following the preceding meeting.

Section 7. Uniform Rate of Assessment: Periodic Assessment. Both annual and special assessments must be fixed at a uniform rate for all improved lots. Unimproved lots, on which a Garden Home has not been constructed to 80% completion, shall be assessed at the uniform rate two years after the recording of the plat, which contains that lot. This method of determining the assessments, dues and charges may not be changed without the prior written approval of all first mortgagees. Annual, special and additional assessments may be collected on a monthly or quarterly basis as the Trustees determine.

Section 8. Date of Commencement of Annual Assessment: Due Dates. The annual assessment provided for herein shall commence to accrue on the first day of the month following conveyance of the common area. The first annual assessment shall be adjusted according to the number of months remaining in the calendar year. In the absence of a determination by the

Any assessment or installment thereof not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date therefore shall be delinquent and shall bear interest from the due date at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum (or such lesser rate as the Trustees shall determine appropriate) until paid.

The Trustees may, in the name of the Association, (a) bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay any such delinquent assessment without waiving the lien of assessment, or (b) may foreclose the lien against the property in accordance with the laws of the State of Utah applicable to the exercise of powers of sale in deeds of trust or to the foreclosure of mortgages, or in any other manner permitted by law, and/or (c) may restrict, limit, or totally terminate any or all services performed by the Association in behalf of the delinquent member.

There shall be added to the amount of any delinquent assessment the costs and expenses of any action, sale or foreclosure, and a reasonable attorney's fee, together with an account for the reasonable rental without regard to the value of the other security.

Sale or transfer of any lot pursuant to foreclosure of a first mortgage or any proceeding in lieu thereof shall extinguish the assessment lien as to payments, which became due prior to such sale or transfer. No sale or transfer, however, shall relieve a lot or owner from lien of such later assessments.

In the event that the Association is maintaining blanket casualty and fire insurance on the Garden homes, the Association shall repair or replace the same to the extent of the insurance proceeds available.
