Each lot and all improvement for which a public authority or utility company is responsible.

PART C. ARCHITECTURAL CONTROL COMMITTEE

- 1. Membership. A majority of the committee may designate a representative to act for it. In the event of death or resignation of any member of the committee, the remaining members of the committee shall have full authority to select a successor. Neither the members of the committee, nor its designated representative shall be entitled to any compensation for services performed pursuant to this covenant. At any time, the then record owners of a majority of the lots shall have the power through a duly recorded written instrument to change the membership of the committee or to withdraw from the committee or restore to it any of its power and duties. The Architectural Control Committee is composed of David H. Young, Brent Davis and Dale Rindlisbacher.
- 2. Procedures. The Committee's approval or disapproval as required in these covenants shall be in writing. In the event the committee, or its designated representative, fails to prove or disapprove within 30 days after plans and specifications have been submitted to it, in any event, if no suit to enjoin the construction has been commenced prior to the completion thereof, approval will not be required, and the related covenants shall be deemed to have duly complied with.

PART C. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1. Term. These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and all persons claiming under them for a period of forty years from the date these covenants are recorded, after which time said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten years unless an instrument signed by a majority of the then owners of the lots has been recorded, agreeing to change said covenants in whole or part.
- 2. Enforcement. Enforcement shall be by proceedings at law or in equity against any person or persons violating or attempting to violate any covenant either to restrain violation or to recover damages.
- 3. Severability. Invalidation of any one of these covenants by judgment or court order shall in no wise affect any of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.
