 - (2) It is unlawful for any person owning or having the custody, possession, or control of livestock to allow, either negligently or with specific intent, the animal to run at large.
 - (3) All fencing of property where livestock are kept shall be of sufficient construction to prevent the escape of or injury to the animals being confined within the fencing. The fencing shall be maintained so that no part of such fence, absent extraordinary circumstances, may be broken, damaged, or in any way create the possibility of injury to the confined animal or to allow the escape thereof.
 - (4) Any animal in violation of this section may be impounded.
 - (5) All persons owning or having the custody, possession, or control of livestock shall be strictly liable for all damages caused by any such livestock.
- (b) In those areas of unincorporated Utah County shown on the Utah County Open Range Map as "Open Range" the following provisions shall apply:
- (1) For purposes of this subsection the term "Open Range" means those areas of unincorporated Utah County shown on the Utah County

Every post shall be so set as to withstand a horizontal strain of two hundred fifty (250) pounds at a point four feet (4') from the ground, and each barrier shall be capable of withstanding a horizontal strain of two hundred fifty (250) pounds at any point midway between the posts. All gates shall be equally as well constructed as the fence.

- (2) Within the Open Range area, no person or entity shall be entitled to damages for trespass of Open Range Livestock on private real property or on real property owned by the United States of America or the State of Utah, unless such property, at the time of the trespass, was enclosed by a Legal Fence.

Part II:

The areas shown on the Open Range Map as Open Range are more particularly described in Exhibit "B", attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference.
